

Campaign Log: If Kathiona Lynn came out on top:

You receive a message from Kathiona. "I went so well last time, I'd like to hire you again for some more off-the-book work. Don't worry if you booked up with your job, I'll have someone free your time up for you. Skorpios' commis have been in piauemonium and I've seen up to my neck sorting it out—I need someone to look into the perpetrator." You set a reminder to write a polite reply when you're not quite so busy.

Otherwise:

The Citadel of Stardlight, which illuminated the sky and plaza with delicate ornate patterns, suddenly goes dark. Murmurs spread through the pedestrians strolling in the twilit Plaza. The familiar feeling of being watched crawls up your thoughts.

Each investigator tests ♦ (4). Reduce the difficulty of this test by 1 for each location away from a Rabotgorod location their meat body is. Each investigator who fails draws the top card of the encounter deck.

Campaign Log: If Elizabeth Mills came out on top:

While scanning nearby comms, you tune into an encrypted channel where one of the originating locations is a Weyland office. You manage to break the encryption a little too late and only catch snippets of the conversation as it is coming to a close—something about false demolition orders.

Otherwise:

The sound of sirens fills the air, and the entire plaza level shakes and rumbles. Above you, debris starts falling from a nearby building—an unscheduled demolition is well-known to be code for Weyland black ops operations, though these allegations have never been proven.

Each investigator tests ♦ (4). Reduce the difficulty of this test by 1 for each location away from a Chakana location their meat body is. Each investigator who fails draws the top card of the encounter deck.

Exceptionally unexceptional and on the poorer end, the district is often overlooked, a wide expanse of middle-class arks, modest shopping districts, and low-income towers. When others discuss Esmereldas at all, it is to mention the district's surprisingly vibrant culinary scene and its ever-evolving music community.

Commonly known as the Government District, developers moved City Hall here from Base de Cayambe a few years after the city's incorporation. To this day, Laguna Velasco remains a district peopled by the cream of the societal crop, including the very rich and political heavyweights.

From the gleaming lights of Broadcast Square to the upscale markets of La Concordia, Rutherford is the cultural heart of New Angeles. Rabotgorod

Illus. Kirsten Zirngibl

LOCATION

Meatspace, District, Rabotgorod.

Rabotgorod is a district struggling to escape from the legacy of its Project days. Back then, it was a pop-up city heavily populated by refugees during the breakdown of the Russian Federation. Today, the district is also called "Robot City," a reference to the district's large android population.

Quinde

Illus. Kirsten Zirngibl

LOCATION

Meatspace, District, Quinde.

The most heavily industrialized sector of the city, Quinde is a manufacturing hub for androids, both clones and bioroids. New androids are said to walk out of HB and Jinteki factories only to walk into another to claim the job of a human worker. Unsurprisingly, there is a strong undercurrent of anti-android sentiment here, where the erosion of the working class is felt most keenly.
