Threat Assessment

Lily is gone, but a SYNC sysop is more immediately problematic. If she calls security downstairs, you might have to deal with their "guest protocols", despite your clearance.

As an additional cost to enter an Unexplored Server, investigators with their cyber avatar at your cyber avatar's location must spend 1 ⚡ clues, as a group. Locations are connected to each location adjacent to it.

Act 1a

Net Analytics

SYNC collects information from all over the Network—there is so much data it would be hopeless to search it all. Are there any nuggets of gold in these cold wastes?

Objective – Explore NBN's servers.

Add as many story cards to the victory display as you can, then get out before they decide you should not be here.

Agenda 1a

Freedom of Information

Your entire body vibrates from the faint hum that permeates the floor and your mouth feels dry in the artificially cold air. You step into the access-restricted basement of NBN's corporate HQ, home of one of NBN's many immense server farms.

As an additional cost to enter an Unexplored Server, investigators with their cyber avatar at your cyber avatar's location must spend 1 ⚡ clues, as a group. Locations are connected to each location adjacent to it.

Agenda 2a

24/7 News Cycle

Noises are always trouble, especially when there is an ongoing case. If Lily catches you and tries to interview you, unwanted attention could come your way.

2B

You hear the faint sound of elevator doors opening and closing, and then a lifting voice hangs in the air.
"Ah, Lily, you know I love you to bits, but you have to stop poking around down here. I've told you it's offlimits, even to you—especially to you."

Lily's familiar newscaster voice replies, "Arella, what a surprise it is to bump into you! Don't worry, I was just leaving. I had a hunch for a moment and simply had to check. We're still on for simsenic night this Thursday, right?"

"Of course. Now, hurry up and leave before we both get in trouble."

Remove Lily Lockwell from the game.

Spawn the set-aside Arella Salvatore at L12 Floor Lobby.

If Victoria Jenkins is helping you, her presence is attracting attention and each investigator gains 1 tag.

L12 Floor Lobby

Meatspace. Elevator.

Unlike Haas-Bioroid's synthetic bioroids or Jinteki's organic clones, NBN's flagship is less a tangible product but a service: information. NBN builds the tools that collect the data and supply the content people use to form their opinions, make decisions, and otherwise become more like who or what they want to be.

AGENDA

Independent Journalism

The elevator doors open once more but this time a whole crowd of noisy streams into the corridor, excitedly chattering to each other, speculating as to what they might find here and the viewer numbers they might achieve. There are so many of them that Arella's shouting can barely be heard above them.

You wince and find you are back in the NBN underground facilities. Checking your cyberspace location, you are still in the servers you were in before also. You shiver in the cold darkness of the room. You shake it off and continue with your business.

Mark 1 assimilation in your Campaign Log. (Max once per game.)

The elevator doors open once more but this time a whole crowd of noisy streams into the corridor, excitedly chattering to each other, speculating as to what they might find here and the viewer numbers they might achieve. There are so many of them that Arella's shouting can barely be heard above them.

After trying a handful of times to get their attention, she gives up and you see Arella duck around a corner making a call gesture. Realising the imminent danger of being caught with these reporters, you make for the elevators but, slowed down by having to dodge the journalists, you reach the doors just as they open. A heavily armed SYNC security team steps out, here to "escort" everybody out and delete any confidential information they find.

<JM> You remember Ten, who died on that Weyland job last year, right? His apartment was plastered on the newsfeeds as another "accident". I swear, I just saw his ghost.
<KJ> You don't really believe in that stuff, do you? Ghosts in the Network? That's just urban legend.
<JM> I know what I saw. He appeared out of nowhere and started talking to me, warning me about some new sentry ICE Weyland had rolled out in the server ahead. Without him I don't think I'd have gotten out in time.
<KJ> Maybe it was just someone messing with you. Or just all the Diesel you've been hopped up on.
<JM> No, it was definitely him. He even mentioned things that only he would know about me.
<KJ> Or maybe it's just your subconscious mind playing tricks on you. Look, I don't want to gaslight you, but maybe there's a more logical explanation before we start believing in ghosts in the Network.

<AW> No, it ain't like that. I could tell you the meetbox location, but he probably sealed my access point off as soon as I went into custody.
<FC> What else did you do in the Shadow Net?
<AW> What don't people do in the Shadow Net?
<FC> Answer the question.
<AW> You can get anything there, man. Software, info, music, snuff. Hell, I got some nice pics of your wife there last week.

<A> Avalon? The rumored domain of Excalibur? That is highly unlikely. What makes you think you were there?

<N1> I was tracing a rogue signal and it led me to this area of the Net that was completely empty. No data traffic, no nodes, nothing. And then, suddenly, everything changed—the colors, the patterns, the noise. It was like I was in another world. And then I saw it. Excalibur. It was like a column of chaotic images, shifting and changing in ways that shouldn't be possible. I couldn't move, I couldn't do anything as it approached me. And then, when it was about to collide with me, it was gone. I was back in the empty server.

<A> That is unsettling but ultimately is not evidence that you were in Avalon.

<N1> Well, when I got out, I talked to Smoke and described what I saw. She said it sounded the same as other runners who've been there as well. I can't get it out of my head. It was like nothing I've ever experienced.
